

Funkwerks (Beers provided by Funkwerks)

Saison

6.8% ABV. Year-round. Bottles, draft.

This is our flagship Saison. This tawny orange-hued beer pours with a rocky whitehead. Aromas of passion fruit, tangerine, and black pepper hit the nose. Flavors a cascade of citrus and pepper. It finishes with a dry and lingering bitterness that awaits another sip.

Solenna

Belgian ale

6% ABV. Bottles, draft.

Brewed as a homage to the rustic, wild fermentations of Belgium, Bastogne pairs the fruitiness of a traditional Belgian yeast strain, the subtle spicy character of Brettanomyces, and the floral notes of German hops. This beer pours a deep amber color and has notes of candy apple, cinnamon, leather and fresh-cut grass that give way to a dry finish and firm lingering bitterness. Tastes like a walk in the misty woods at twilight. Brett character will continue to develop with age so grab a bottle for your cellar, too!

Single Hop Polaris

Belgian pale ale

5.9% ABV. Bottles, draft.

The single hop Belgian ale was brewed to showcase a new German hop called Polaris. Due to this hop's extremely high alpha acid content, we only used it at the end of the boil and during dry-hopping to give the most flavor and aroma possible. Described by the Germans as 'glacier-candy', this hop packs a punch of eucalyptus, pine, peppermint, and grapefruit rind. The aromas carry into the flavor which is balanced by bready malt. The finish is dry and crisp with a lingering bitterness.

Tropic King

Imperial saison

8% ABV. Bottles, draft.

Our Imperial Saison! It bursts with fruity tropical characteristics of passion fruit, mango and peach from the New Zealand Rakau hops we use. Combined with the pepper and ginger flavors produced by our house yeast, this is a flavor extravaganza!

Dark Prophet

Barrel aged Belgian dark ale

9.5% ABV. Bottles, draft.

A dark mahogany Belgian-style ale partially aged in bourbon barrels. Notes of dark fruits, vanilla, cocoa, and caramel gives way to a dry finish with a hint of oak tannins. A complex, contemplative brew for a cold winter evening.
